Clear Creek Justice Bill D. Hallsted
Shot out of the saddle from ambush, range detective Levi Hill dropped his rifle. Worse still, his pistol had fallen from the holster. Crawling desperately along a shallow rivulet, he tried to stay hidden in the tall grass. He had set out after the six Puckett brothers who had raped and murdered his friend's wife. Now the killers were searching for him. His life hung precariously in the balance. Wounded and bleeding, Levi crawled to the top of a ridge, only to realize he was trapped by a small box canyon. Loosing strength rapidly, with only a knife for defense, he faced formidable odds. Did he have a chance in the world of escaping?
