So, You Love Animals: An Action-Packed, Fun-Filled Book to Help Kids Help Animals Zoe Weil

So, You Love Animals teaches 9–12 year-olds what is happening to other species, enabling them to turn their care for animals into effective and positive choices that improve their lives. Covering companion animals, farmed animals, those used in entertainment, sport, experimentation and wildlife, it engages kids with facts, games, skits, experiments and exciting activities, empowering them to make a difference.

Zoe Weil is cofounder and President of the International Institute for Humane Education. She developed the first graduate program in humane education in the U.S. and conducts frequent humane education workshops. A parent, and author of several humane education books for young people—including Above All Be Kind (New Society, 2003)—she lives in Maine.
