About Face: The ABC's of Face Reading Liz Gerstein
The eyes have it…and so do the lips, cheeks, chin and nose! Welcome to the world of physiognomy, the art of interpreting facial features and expressions. This groundbreaking book teaches readers the skills they need to access the thoughts, feelings and personalities of other people by analyzing the facial characteristics. The author skillfully blends the scientific knowledge of ancient Chinese scholars with her own findings to form an updated, practical method of Western face reading. There's even a chapter on facial features that reveal criminal tendencies, complete with case histories. Gaining insight into people's secrets has never been so easy, or so much fun.
