This work shows the reader how to deal with every aspect of painting outdoors. It contains 40 step-by-step demonstration paintings that are all painted and photographed outdoors on location, providing real life examples of how to deal with problems. The book covers working in a variety of mediums and includes how to deal with changing light, working with greens, painting trees and water, how to create atmospheric conditions, how to paint people and buildings, painting complicated scenes and how to cope with painting in a hot climate.
