When Rivers Meet (Frontier Faith Series) (Volume 4) Dr. R. T. Hirner
WHEN RIVERS MEET is as unpredictable as Old Man River himself. This inspiring tale is rife with perils lying just below the surface. Two souls arrive in the small river town. Reuben Henderson, a wealthy builder who recently suffered the loss of his father, wife, and still-born child, arrived in Hannibal, MO on his way west while running from his pain. Caroline Bales came to Hannibal to hide a deadly secret. Their paths cross when the object of Caroline's secret robs her uncle's dry goods store and leaves Caroline for dead. Reuben Henderson finds himself in jail—the victim of mistaken identity. The sheriff called upon the men of the Standard ranch to help solve this heinous crime. These "religious types", as Caroline's Uncle Leroy calls them, act as deputies. They are led by Jean Baptiste De La Porte, itinerant preacher and formidable lawman, known to the locals as Bro. John. Though Caroline recovers from her injuries, will she ever find the peace she seeks? Though Reuben is released from jail, will he ever be truly free? Separated by his painful past and her convoluted present, these two are irresistibly drawn to one another by a common fear. What follows is a wild ride on troubled waters as a unique assembly of characters converge into a current, each destined to become something new. Hold on tight as the men of the Standard Ranch show us what happens WHEN RIVERS MEET.
