Essays in Two Voices Madelyn Blair
Essays In Two Voices is written for those who wish to move past agreement and discover shared understanding. In an age where deep understanding is at a premium, this book presents a simple-to-learn process for creating a safe place for exchanging ideas and thinking, exploring a common challenge, developing a common vision, and more. The process can be particularly helpful between unequal partners who can benefit from a level playing field. The process has been used face to face and virtually across continents to wide acclaim. The book is written in a friendly and approachable style with examples to clarify the practice.
