The Dragon Hunter's Handbook Adelia Vin Helsin
The Dragon Hunter's Handbook enlarges upon the ancient mythology of dragons in a new and imaginative way. Forget everything you think you know about dragons. These pages contain the true tale of their cruelty and savagery. Dragons are the original denizens of Hell itself, and once cast out of that fiery place by Satan they set about colonizing the earth, slowly mustering their strength in the remote mountain strongholds of Kathmandu and Tibet. Few manuscripts survive from the Middle Ages, and none so strange and perplexing as this journal of a young woman, Adelia of Troense, found among the oldest papers in the library of the famous Van Helsing dynasty. Adelia is the family's ultimate fighting ancestor, whose fate it was to save the world from a whirlwind of dragon flame. The Dragon Hunter's Handbook demonstrates the supreme skills and strategies needed to dispatch this cursed scaly breed, and chronicles Adelia's feud with the most powerful adversary imaginable, the Ancient.
