As A Poet Speaks!: The Illumination of My Heart! Kenneth R. Hare
When I was young it was always my dreams to have all my writing in my own book. I dream of seeing myself on television, hearing myself on the radio, and standing up before people telling my story to the world around me. I even dream of writing not one book, but writing many books that could help aid others in their life. Today, I am proud to bring to you one of my favorite things that I love to do the most and that is writing poetry for the woman that I love. In this book you will find my master piece of work that I done while I was with my late wife Brandi Hare and also you will find some of the best work from my friends as well. I often dream of the spot light, but I never wanted to share it by myself.
