Chatsworth and the Duchesses of Devonshire (Castles and Countesses) Katherine Longhi
As individuals, the Duchesses of Devonshire have made their mark on history, politics, and English high society. Collectively, they are a force which has made an indelible print on the conservation of their home at Chatsworth. There is no better place to try to get a sense of who these amazing women were than by visiting Chatsworth. With this book you will unlock their stories and get a room by room tour of Chatsworth. By the end you will have walked figuratively and possibly even literally in the Duchesses of Devonshire’s footsteps and can form your own judgements about these fascinating women.
