faceconomics, like it! (Updated 2016 Version): face the new world market (Volume 1) Aldous Mina Updated Version:2016 Face the new world of modern macroeconomics, in a thought-provoking and sincere interpretation of the globalization of markets in an easy-to-read, real life application of how the social media platform is changing economic development worldwide. Today macroeconomics is being approached by international business professionals, traditional media, economists, and corporate multinational decision makers through social media. Emerging markets and various demographics in both developing markets and developed countries worldwide are racing to make their citizen, destination, economy viral. The "new normal" in international business consists of new opportunities in markets that are rapidly growing and engaging the developed world through technology and social media. Emerging and frontier markets are becoming more attractive in cultivating the next generation of labor force and scholars in order to participate in economic advancement and multinational market entry worldwide. Advanced economies are taking notice of building economic capacity through social media. They are also actively participating in the creation of new, innovative approaches to market entry. Alas, the world has truly become global--entertainment, education, cultural exploration, language, and marketing. Faceconomics presents an avenue to be explored in the twenty-first century. It reflects how economies of scale can be multiplied and technology can lift societies worldwide. Face the new business normal and face the new world of Faceconomics.
