Excerpt from The Life and Strange Surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe of York, Mariner: As Related by Himself
I had two elder brothers, one Of which was lieutenant colonel to an English regiment of foot in Flanders, formerly commanded by the famous Colonel Lockhart, and was killed at the battle near Dunkirk against the Spaniards; what became Of my second brother I never knew, any more than my father or mother did know what was become of me.
Being the third son Of the family, and not bred to any trade, my head began to be filled very early with rambling thoughts. My father, who was very ancient, had given me a competent share Of learning, as far as house education, and a country free-school generally goes, and designed me for the law; but I would be satisfied with nothing but going to sea 3 and my inclination to this led me so strongly against the will, nay the commands of my father, and against all the entreaties and persuasions of my mother and other friends, that there seemed to be something fatal in that propension Of nature, tending directly to the life Of misery which was to befal me.
