MARCHING TO CAPTIVITY: The War Diaries of a French Peasant 1939-45

Gustave Folcher

MARCHING TO CAPTIVITY: The War Diaries of a French Peasant 1939-45 Gustave Folcher Published with great success in France in 1981, and now appearing for the first time in English, Marching to Captivity is the remarkable diary kept by Gustave Folcher, a French peasant who was called up to serve the French Army in the Second World war, captured by Germans and put to work on a labour farm deep inside Germany.

The diaries, running from the start of the war to Folcher's return to France in May 1945, provide a unique view of the life of a soldier in the disastrous Battle of France, of a peasant life in France and Germany during the war, and finally of the collapse of Nazism in 1945
