Having None of It Adrienne Su

In this third collection, award-winning poet Adrienne Su reflects deeply about the circumstances in which people are forced to remake themselves: as parents, as immigrants, as people whose marriages have ended, as people who've wound up in a place they never intended to settle.

From "Breakup":

Another ending finds its place among novels, lives, summers that fled, but this kind has a way of getting filed under failure:

yes, the relationship failed,
if to fail is to fail to endure.
