Assured that Leon is no longer a threat, Greg and Evan begin building their new lives together as not only Pastor and First Lady of Jehovah Missionary church but as husband and wife. Still basking as newlyweds, Greg and Evan are determined not to let anything or anyone distract them from their love, their faith, and raising their baby. But the bliss is short lived when the murder of a teenager rocks the church and their community with implications that a larger conspiracy is at hand. As he works to free a young man wrongly implicated in the murder, Greg discovers a plot that reveals his greatest rival is out for revenge controlling people and events around him.
