Jimmy Catfish: The Beginning and The End Bill Russo
Forced into retirement following a stormy career as Captain of the last three masted schooner still sailing the Atlantic in the 1950s, Cisco da Silva hopes for a better life on Cape Cod with his new bride. They settle into a cozy cottage alongside Codfresh Lake - an eerie body of water compounded of three disparate sections; one of which contains beasts that threaten his life and that of his pregnant wife. 'Jimmy Catfish' is at once an epic adventure and an examination of ill fate peeling away the layers of a man's resolve, decency, and will to battle both his personal and physical demons.
