Hedgehog, Pig, and the Sweet Little Friend Lena Anderson
It's a quiet evening at Hedgehog's house, until there's a squeak at the gate.
Someone's outside who wants to come in.
It's dark and the hour is late.

It's someone who's lost and wants to go home,
someone who can't find the way.
"Come in," invites Hedgehog, "come in and sit down.
Tomorrow will be a new day."

Winsome watercolor art and rhyming text combine to tell the sweet story of a little piglet who is lost and cannot find her way home.
