Another Reason (Penguin Poets)

Carl Dennis

Another Reason (Penguin Poets) Carl Dennis
From the winner of the Pulitzer Prize and the Ruth Lilly Prize

The poems in Carl Dennis's new collection Another Reason assume that our efforts to reason with ourselves and with others about what matters to us are necessary to escape the purely private point of view, to provide the houses we live in with doors and windows. These poems enact a drama of attempted persuasion, as the poet confers with himself, with intimates, and with strangers, if only in the hope that by defining differences more precisely one may be drawn into a genuine dialogue. As the poet asserts and questions his own authority, encountering a wide range of competing claims from other voices, we find ourselves included in a conversation that deepens our notion of the human community.

As a college student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or even make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's spirit or real their passion. They just do what the professor want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring along with can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Another Reason (Penguin Poets) can make you really feel more interested to read.
