Excerpt from House Painting

This book is for two sorts of men; yes, three.

Some think they can't paint, because they have never done such a thing. The book is for them.

Now and then a man feels so cock-sure of whatever he thinks he knows, that people say "he knows it all." It is a sly way of saying "he don't know what an awful lot of things there are in the world that he don't know." There's a little in it for him.

But the bulk of Americans, painters or not, feel able to do a good-enough job with the help of a little schooling. Here's the schooling.
