Yente and the Unforgettable Disaster Tara Blommaart, Laura Boekel
It will only happen to you. You wake up as a Jew. Suddenly, Germany wages war against the Jews in the Netherlands. It happens to a girl named Yente Polak. Together with her family, she makes the most awful stuff you can imagine. Yente is abused and no longer feels safe in her own environment. She escaped near death, but whether this holds true to everyone is still questionable. This is a story about close friendship, courage, and sadness, which will make you delve into the adventurous life of Yente Polak. In 1998, Tara Blommaart kept herself busy by writing stories and poems. She loved musicals and attended lessons. In 1997, Laura Boekel did several sports, like running and skating. She played the guitar, too. They both lived in Tuitjenhorn and have written the book in the Plus Group of the Primary School at St. Barbara. The assignment was to write a story about a period in Dutch history.
