Everyone has a story! Have you ever been betrayed, rejected, or unjustly accused? Do you feel trapped or used? If so, you will understand this book. The Mothers of Jesus tells the stories of the five women listed in the genealogy of Jesus Christ in Matthew's Gospel. It explores how their stories are really our stories. It demonstrates how God intervened in their lives and turned "what was meant for evil into good." (Gen. 50:20) Finally, it guides us to search our own souls and allow God to do the same for us!
